

7-25-79 ✓
William Lowary

Funeral services for William McKinley Lowary, 82, of R.R. 3, Aberdeen were held at the Miller-Huebl Funeral Home at 1111 South Main, Aberdeen, Friday, July 20.

Mr. Lowary died Monday, July 16, at the Americana Healthcare Center of cancer.

The Rev. James E. Peterson of First Presbyterian Church officiated. The organist was Mrs. John Evens and the soloist was Robert E. Olson. Myles Fry was at the guest book.

Interment was at the Groton Union Cemetery.

Honorary casket bearers, all of Aberdeen, were William Fry, Milton Baron, Harold Gsell, Theodore Horn, Albert Evelo, Viv Harris, Roy Fry, Marion Fry, Lewis Williams, Fred Evans.

Active casket bearers were Bill Sauck, Aberdeen; Gary Lowary, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Earl Lowary, Claremont; Arnold Lowary, Aberdeen; Kim Lowary, Bismarck, N.D.; L.D. Lowary, Omaha; and John Lowary, Groton.

The family prefers memorials to the American Cancer Society.

William McKinley Lowary was born in Breckenridge, Ill., on February 5, 1897 to James and Emma Gerhardt Lowary. This is where he attended school and spent his early manhood. He was married to Farrell of Fowler, Ill., in 1919, and they moved to the Groton and Putney area in 1921, where he farmed. Mrs. Lowary died in 1932. He moved to Aberdeen in 1932 where he started the William Lowary Trucking Co. He retired in 1973 and lived at his home southwest of Aberdeen until March of 1979.

The Groton Independent

WEDNESDAY, JULY 25, 1979

He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Aberdeen.

He is survived by two sons: Keith F. Lowary of Aberdeen, Loy W. Lowary of Baker, Ore.; two daughters; Mrs. William Kenneth (Lucy) Sauck of Aberdeen, Mrs. Al (Nina) Fintel of Lebanon, Ore.; two sisters: Mrs. Lillian Fry of Aberdeen, Mrs. James (Maude) Robison of Lorraine, Ill., 16 grandchildren and two great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, wife, three brothers and two sisters.